Covina Coin News

This Month's Meeting:

We welcome you to our July meeting. Mark Baskin will do the Program. The title will be determined by him. We also have a great list of Door-Prizes. Tickets are only a dollar for each chance. See List on page 2. We also might have a 1/2 & 1/2 drawing. See our wonderful Treasurer, Dennis For purchasing tickets for these drawings.

Refreshments will again be provided by The Desens family.

If you want to share a Numismatic item, we have a Show & Tell time for that.

Some Notes from the Secretary:

Have you had a chance to go on a vacation this year? Did you pick up any Numismatic items? Will you share them with us?

We have a new member ! His name is James H. Replogle. He is retired and lives in Upland. He has an interest in all Numismatic items. Let's make him feel welcome and part of the Covina Coin Club Family!

My family is bringing the refreshments this month. But I would like to have volunteers for the coming months. Save your receipts for Dennis R. and he will reimburse you.

The picture on the left is what the wiring in my brain looks like!

As you can see, I finally got my new computer and printer to work with each other. I am still working out the bugs, as they say!

Last Month's Meeting

In June, we had a program I hadn't heard before. Bill Nash spoke on "Sanitary Fair Tokens/ Medals". This took place during

The Civil War. The Commission was started by Lincoln in 1861.

It was very informative! Thanks Bill!

Sorry but I didn't get the name of the Membership Drawing

Winner! My apologies.

There was no Old or New Business brought up.

Show & Tell: John L., Bob D., Emily C., Ron N., Bill N., Dennis M.,

John B., Dale & Linn, Helen D., Dennis R., Mark B. & James R., all brought items to share.

The Winners by draw are Dale & Bill N.

Auction: Dennis M. was the Caller and Emily C. was the runner.

On a sad note, we learned of Gil Ayers passing away on Nov. 1 of last year. He was the son of Corky & Awanda Ayers. He will be missed!
